PROJECT

Reader Registration System: It is a desktop application that allows the recording and analysis of readers and book information participating in a reading activity in a database. I wrote this application with C# on the .NET Framework. I used MS SQL Server for database operations.

Laundry Reservation App: It is a web application I created as a solution to the reservation problems I encountered in the laundry room in the student dormitory. Firstly I created a Flowchart on draw.io. After that, I wrote this project in ASP.NET Core using MVC architecture. I used MS SQL Server as the database, Entity framework and JQuery for data operations.
